

Guiding Principles

This event is meant for the pleasure of members of the HQ SACT Officers' Mess and their guests. Members are permitted a partner and one guest couple at reduced price. Additional guests may be invited at full price ($120 per person). This is an adult affair, no persons under 21 years of age are permitted.

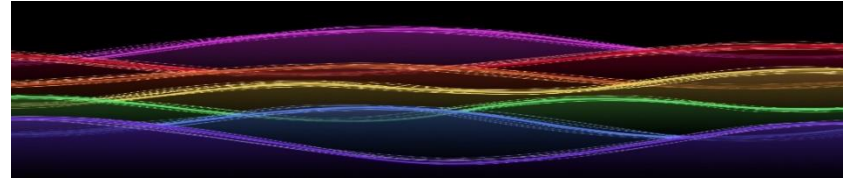

Non-members are permitted to attend at the sole discretion of the event organisers. Persons who are eligible to be regular members but choose not to become members are not allowed as guests.

There is a formal dress code that will be strictly enforced. Male officers should wear mess dress and other gentlemen must wear tuxedo. Female officers may wear either mess dress or ball gown and other ladies must wear ball gown. You must reserve a seat at www.officersmess.us and properly identify each person in your party. Proper identification is required for security purposes. Tables are for parties of 10. 10 only. There is a maximum sign up of 300 for this event. If you have issues, contact Wayne at buck@act.nato.int. Only Wayne can deal with attendance issues.

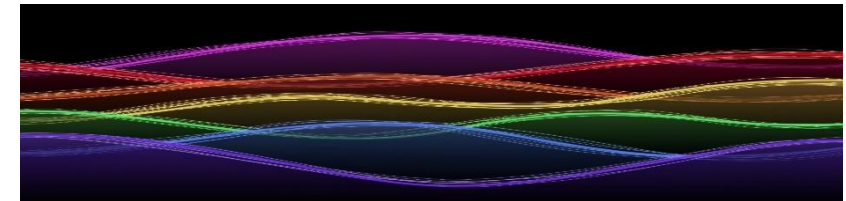

A professional photographer is employed for the event and all photographs may be used for future marketing purposes without prior permission of attendees.
